Salary Determination

- The ODNI uses a rank-in-person system in which rank is attached to the individual. A selected ODNI candidate or other Federal Government candidate will be assigned to the position at the employee's current GS grade and salary.
- A current Federal Government employee, selected for a detail, will be assigned to the position at his or her current grade and salary.

Component Mission

The Office of the Director of National Intelligence (ODNI) Deputy Director of National Intelligence for Intelligence Integration (DDNI/II) serves as the Director of National Intelligence's (DNI) senior leader for intelligence integration across the IC enterprise. DDNI/II is responsible for ensuring customer outcomes by leading advances in collection and analysis that ensure the quality, timeliness, and utility of insights for the nation's decision-makers. Additionally, DDNI/II is responsible for increasing expertise and improving tradecraft at all levels through specialization, integration, and collaboration. DDNI/II is responsible for the strategic vision, direction, and planning to deliver a more integrated IC reflecting the collective wisdom of our collection and analytic components to advance, in support of the National Intelligence Managers, the Unifying Intelligence Strategies (UIS).

Major Duties and Responsibilities (MDRs)

- Serve as the Assistant DNI for Mission Priorities, Analysis, and Collection, and guide development of strategic plans, evaluation of plan effectiveness and IC performance, and development of performance and resource recommendations to support the IC's overall attainment of the U.S. Government's strategic objectives.
- Lead, manage, and direct a professional level staff, evaluate performance, collaborate on goal setting, and provide feedback and guidance regarding personal and professional development opportunities.
- Lead a professional staff in successfully defining and managing complex programs and projects that may include ill-defined requirements, ambiguity, parallel tasks, multiple dependencies, high risks, and multiple interfaces; ensure timelines, costs, deliverables, and outcomes are achieved according to approved plans.
- Establish, guide, and oversee ODNI and IC working groups, boards, and committees to promote the integration of collection and analysis activities through forums such as the National Intelligence Collection Board and the National Intelligence Analytic Board (NIAB).
- In partnership with the IC Chief Information Officer, lead information technology modernization initiatives through the IC Information Technology Enterprise (IC ITE) by implementing cross-community strategies for data, tools and services in support of intelligence mission needs.
- Establish and update stakeholder priorities through the NIPF and continually evaluate the IC's collection analytic posture through appropriate guidelines and restrictions. Use the prioritization process to assess and communicate IC performance against priorities to senior policymakers, including the White House and the National Security Council.

OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR OF NATIONAL INTELLIGENCE

L E A D I N G I N T E L L I G E N C E I N T E G R A T I O N

- Support leadership across DDNI/MI in facilitating transparency and collaboration through formal corporate processes and informal professional relationships with other DMI Assistant Directors.
- As necessary, brief senior IC leadership, Department of Defense officials, members of Congress, policy-makers, and other major stakeholders on intelligence integration and mission management initiatives, challenges and opportunities.
- Provide a corporate DMI mission perspective and recommendations for investment in the National Intelligence Plan in support to the Principal Deputy Director of National Intelligence and IC Chief Financial Officer.

Mandatory and Educational Requirements

- Extensive knowledge of information technology and management principals as they related to each phase of the system development lifecycle.
- Demonstrated experience with IC analysis and collection activities, capabilities, and processes across all intelligence disciplines.
- Demonstrated ability to anticipate intelligence and national security issues relevant to the IC and United States Government and recommend and implement needed actions.
- Excellent communication and briefing skills demonstrated by the ability to produce clear, logical, and concise presentations.
- Expert analytical and critical thinking skills, including the demonstrated ability to think strategically, execute initiatives for integrated collection management and tradecraft, and interagency-wide initiatives.
- Extensive knowledge of each phase of the Intelligence Planning, Programming, Budgeting and Execution (IPBE) system.
